

Index

INTRODUCTION	XI
AUTHORS	XV

Chapter 1. COMPARATIVE EDUCATION, MODERNITY AND POSTMODERNITY	1
--	----------

María José García Ruiz and Alicia Sianes-Bautista

Objectives.....	1
Learning outcomes	2
1. Introduction	2
2. Globalisation and postmodernism in comparative education	3
2.1. Globalisation	4
2.1.1. Internationalisation of education.....	4
2.1.2. The curricular dimension of education.....	6
2.2. Postmodernism	7
3. Modernism versus postmodernism in comparative education.....	8
3.1. Comparative education and modernism.....	8
3.2. Comparative education and postmodernism	10
3.2.1. The relativistic character of postmodernism	12
3.2.2. Postmodern critique to eurocentrism and social injustice.....	12
3.3. Transitology	13
4. Comparative and international education in the 21 st century	14
4.1. Denomination and object of study	14
4.2. Epistemology and methodology of comparative and international education.....	15
4.3. Future of comparative and international education	17
5. Summary	19
Links of interest	22
References.....	22

Glossary	27
Questions for debate	29

Chapter 2. TRADITION VERSUS REFORM IN EDUCATION DURING THE 21ST CENTURY 31

María José García Ruiz and Alicia Sianes-Bautista

Objectives	31
Learning outcomes	31
1. Introduction	32
2. Lifelong learning	33
2.1. Origin and development until the 21 st century	34
2.2. Lifelong learning in the 21 st century, critics and further development.	35
2.2.1. Unesco and lifelong learning	36
2.2.2. Oecd and lifelong learning	36
2.3. Future perspectives of lifelong learning	37
3. Traditional versus modern pedagogies.....	38
3.1. Formal or traditional pedagogy	39
3.2. Progressive pedagogy	10
3.3. The debate is still open	42
4. Generation of knowledge in the 21 st century	42
4.1. Mode 1 versus mode 2 of knowledge creation	42
4.2. The end of the university as we know it (and it doesn't feel fine)	44
4.3. Artificial intelligence in knowledge creation	46
4.3.1. Ai in academic writing and the problem of authorship.....	46
4.3.2. Ai in academic writing from a comparative perspective	47
4.4. Future interests and concerns	48
5. Summary	48
Links of interest	52
References.....	52
Glossary	56
Questions for debate	57

Chapter 3. THE RECURRENT DEBATE OF COMPREHENSIVENESS VERSUS STRATIFICATION IN EDUCATION IN THE 21ST CENTURY 59

María José García Ruiz and Alicia Sianes-Bautista

Objectives	59
Learning outcomes	60
1. Introduction	60

2. Principles of equity and freedom in education.....	61
2.1. The principle of equity of education.....	61
2.1.1. Equity in education in the 21 st century	62
2.2. The principle of freedom in education	64
2.3. The principle of excellence in education.....	65
3. Comprehensive education.....	66
3.1. Comprehensive education in europe: origins and historical background.....	66
3.2. Comprehensive education in the nordic countries.....	68
3.2.1. Sweden.....	69
3.2.2. Finland	70
3.2.3. Norway.....	72
3.2.4. Denmark.....	73
3.2.5. Iceland.....	74
3.3. Comprehensive education in England	75
3.4. Comprehensive education in Spain, from a comparative perspective .	77
3.5. Comprehensive education in the 21 st century.....	79
4. Stratified education	81
4.1. Stratified education in Europe: origins and historical background.....	81
4.2. Stratified education in Germany.....	83
5. Summary.....	87
Links of interest	90
References.....	90
Glossary	96
Questions for debate	96

Chapter 4. HIGHER EDUCATION IN EUROPE: TRADITIONAL MODELS AND THE IMPACT OF TRANSNATIONAL EDUCATIONAL TRENDS

97

María José García Ruiz and Alicia Sianes-Bautista

Objectives.....	97
Learning outcomes	97
1. Introduction	98
2. University and higher education traditions in Europe	99
2.1. Higher education in England: historical background.....	101
2.2. Higher education in France: historical background.....	104
2.3. Higher education in Germany: a historical background	107
3. Globalisation in European higher education.....	109
3.1. Crisis at university?.....	109
3.2. Idea and epistemology of the European university.....	111
3.3. Ethos and mission(s) of the European university.....	112

3.4. The European Higher Education Area.....	115
4. The future of universities: challenges and opportunities.....	114
5. Summary.....	116
Links of interest	119
References.....	119
Glossary	125
Questions for debate	125